Native Americans Tribes

Background: You have been studying the lives and contributions of three American Indian cultures of the past and present, with emphasis on the Powhatan of the Eastern Woodlands; the Lakota of the Plains; and the Pueblo peoples of the Southwest.

Design Challenge:

Design and build a representation of one Native American Region. Label the parts of your region with signs or info blocks

Criteria:

- Build a four-sided fence around your garden to show a food source.
- At least half your garden should be filled with crops and the other half a water source.
- You must have a water source for your garden to grow.
- What kind of shelter would they have in this region?

Materials:

- Any block in the inventory that will represent the parts of your model.

Crops:

- Wheat = corn
- Melon Seeds
- Pumpkin seeds
- Tree Saplings
- Cacti
- Sweet berries
